"In his possession was also a first-class railroad ticket dated August 8, 1896, sold at the Sixteenth-street station entitling the holder to an unlimited ride to Mojave.

"I am not at liberty to go much further into the details of this case, although it is most interesting because there is still another man to be captured.

"All I can say now is that Winthrop left this City on Thursday morning for San Jose. I traced and followed him there. On Saturday he left San Jose and landed in Oakland, stopping at the Clarendon Hotel, which he was leaving this morning when Cody placed him under arrest."

Soon after his man had arrived, Lees served on him two bench warrants, and at 4:30 p. m. had him taken from the detectives' room in the City Hall to the City Prison, and there formally charged with robbery and assault with intent to commit murder. Winthrop was cool and unconcerned, but there was a nervous twitching of his clean-shaven lips which betrayed his emotion and distress. After being booked, he asked to be put in the same cell in which he had been previously confined, as he evidently thought it would again prove lucky.

When Campbell was brought into the room with Winthrop the prisoner inquired casually of his Hawkshaw vis-a-vis, "Who's that?"

And then the Hawaiian patriarch, lifting his hand dramatically, said thrice, "That is the man. That is the man. That is the man."

Winthrop did not flinch. Instead he coolly bit a piece from the plug of tobacco he carried.

When interviewed his first statement—in fact, the sentence that alternated with every other one—was, "I've nothing to say."

Winthrop's trial is now going on before Judge Wallace. Attorney Bell, who successfully defended Winthrop on his murder trial, is again defending him and so far the only proceedings in court have been the attempt of the defense to attack the sufficiency of the indictment.

The people recognize and appreciate real merit. That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sales in the world. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures—absolutely, permanently cures. It is the One True Blood Purifier. Its superior merit is an established fact, and merit wins.

Hood's PILLS are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, headache.

Pact is Its Name.

Climate of every variety exerts a different influence on the desires of mankind for a stimulant. In colder zones beverages of great alcoholic strength are used to a very much larger degree than in the tropics. Beer is best suited to our climate and none found in the market is better than that bearing the brand of "PABST, MILWAUKEE." It is brewed from the best of malt and hops and is a great thirst quencher and invigorator and stimulates the nerves and muscles. At the Royal, Cosmopolitan and Pacific saloons it may be found, cold and pure. Interchangeable checks are issued which may be used at any of the three resorts.
